ITINERARY

This six-day pilgrimage explores the life and spirituality of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, from her birthplace in Alençon to the sanctuaries of Lisieux. Visits to Caen, Mont-Saint-Michel, Étretat and Rouen combine faith, history and Normandy's beauty. Through Mass, prayer and spiritual reflection, pilgrims will discover St. Thérèse's "Little Way" of trust, simplicity and love, under the guidance of Rev. Prof. Charló Camilleri O.Carm. This pilgrimage is in collaboration with Faculty of Theology, UOM.

DAY 1 - Alençon - Lisieux

Arrival in Paris and transfer to Alençon, birthplace of St. Thérèse. Visit the well preserved Martin Family Home, with objects of Thérèse and her parents, Louis and Zélie Martin. Discover the family life and faith that shaped her vocation. Continue to Lisieux, our base for the pilgrimage at the L'Ermitage.

DAYS 2 - 4 - Retreat in Lisieux

Three days dedicated to discovering the life, family, vocation and spirituality of St. Thérèse. Visit the Basilica of Saint Thérèse, the Martin Family in the Cathedral of St. Peter, Les Buissonnets, her childhood home, and the Carmel of Lisieux, where she entered religious life and developed her "Little Way" of trusting in God's mercy. Time will be dedicated to prayer and discovering the places that shaped her life and spirituality.

DAY 5 - Caen - Mont-Saint-Michel

Travel to Caen and visit the Visitandine Monastery, where St. Thérèse's sister Ven. Leonie lived and is buried. Continue to Mont-Saint-Michel, the spectacular medieval abbey dedicated to St. Michael and a place of Christian pilgrimage for over 1,000 years. Explore its medieval village, abbey and breath taking views across the bay before returning to Lisieux.

DAY 6 - Étretat - Rouen - Malta

Begin the final day travelling to Étretat, famous for its dramatic white cliffs, natural arches and views over the English Channel. Continue to Rouen, the historic capital of Normandy, with its magnificent Gothic Cathedral, the Gros-Horloge and sites associated with St. Joan of Arc. Transfer to Paris Airport for the evening flight to Malta, concluding the pilgrimage.

Throughout the pilgrimage, Holy Mass will be celebrated each day, together with daily spiritual input, prayer and moments of personal reflection, helping pilgrims to deepen their faith and follow the spiritual journey of St. Thérèse.

The above itinerary and entrances are subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances and weather conditions.
