ITINERARY

DAY 1 – Malta - Thessaloniki

Depart Malta and arrive in Thessaloniki, where St. Paul established one of the earliest Christian communities in Europe. Visit the Rotunda of Galerius and the White Tower, reflecting on Paul's ministry and his letters to the Thessalonians. Overnight in Thessaloniki.

DAY 2 – Neapolis • Philippi • Thessaloniki

Travel to ancient Neapolis (Kavala), where St. Paul first arrived in Europe. Visit the Philippi Archaeological Site, the Baptistry of Lydia, and the place where Paul and Silas were imprisoned before returning to Thessaloniki. Overnight in Thessaloniki.

DAY 3 – Thessaloniki • Veria • Kalambaka

Visit Veria (Berea), where the Bereans eagerly received Paul's teachings. Continue to Kalambaka, the gateway to the spectacular monasteries of Meteora. Overnight in Kalambaka.

DAY 4 – Meteora • Delphi

Explore the breathtaking Meteora Monasteries, perched high on dramatic rock formations. Continue to Delphi, once home to the famous Oracle of Apollo. Overnight in Delphi.

DAY 5 – Delphi

Visit the Delphi Archaeological Site and the magnificent Hosios Loukas Monastery, renowned for its beautiful Byzantine mosaics and rich Christian heritage. Overnight in Delphi.

DAY 6 – Corinth • Athens

Discover Ancient Corinth, where St. Paul preached for eighteen months. Visit the Bema of Corinth, where Paul stood before Gallio, before continuing to Athens. Overnight in Athens.

DAY 7 – Athens

Explore Areopagus Hill, where St. Paul preached the "Unknown God," and visit the iconic Acropolis and Parthenon, symbols of ancient Greece and the meeting of faith and philosophy. Overnight in Athens.

DAY 8 – Athens - Malta

Visit the Byzantine & Christian Museum, home to one of the world's finest collections of Byzantine art. Enjoy some free time before transferring to the airport for your return flight to Malta.

The above itinerary and entrances are subject to change to unforeseen circumstances and weather conditions.
